

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.—The schooner N. H. Gambrill, Lieut. DE CAMP, Commander, arrived at this port yesterday in 53 days from Loando, South Africa, after having experienced a succession of violent gales, which stove bulwarks and done other damage.

The N. H. G. hails from Baltimore—is a slaver and prize to the U. S. Frigate Constitution, Commodore ISAAC MAYO, and was captured on the 3d November, off Congo River, and placed in charge of Lieut. DE CAMP, who brought her home. She brings home the cook, and one seaman, belonging to the vessel—also, 12 seamen (invalids) from the Squadron. The following are the names: Charles Johns, boatswain; John H. Pulver, master-at-arms; John Ray, Joseph Dolan, Andrew Alcom, John Appleby, William Brown, John Ramirez, Desto Datto, Charles Tucker, G. Mill, seamen; S. Lane (landsman.) Left at Loando, brig Reindeer, JULIO, for New-York in 20 days.

The United States ship Marion sailed for Benqueila, Nov. 3, all well. The United States frigate Constitution would sail for Monrovia and St. Helena in a few days. The United States brig Perry was at Monrovia.

The New York Times

Published: January 6, 1854

Copyright © The New York Times